

Patty Sorensen is a previous teacher and technology consultant who in retirement is an avid gardener and birder. She was a Yamhill County Master Gardener until her grandchildren arrived. Now she is a grandma who is sharing her love of gardens and birds with them.